Thousands of farmers from all over the State, including Mysuru, march to Bengaluru against government apathy towards burning agrarian issues

Bengaluru, Nov.19 (KMS& DM)- Upset over the government's apathy towards addressing burning agrarian issues, thousands of farmers from across Karnataka, including a large number of sugarcane growers, staged a demonstration at Freedom Park in Bengaluru this morning as a prelude to their plans of laying siege to Vidhana Soudha in the afternoon.

The farmers are seeking fulfilment of their demands which chiefly included full farm loan waiver as promised by Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy in the run up to the Assembly polls, clearance of pending arrears by sugar factories for the cane supplied, announcement of State-set Statutory Minimum Price (SMP) for sugarcane, re-starting of crushing by sugar factories, an exclusive package for re-building of flood-ravaged Kodagu district, compensation of Rs.25,000 per hectare for crop loss, introduction of a flexible agri-lending policy and farmer-friendly implementation of Fasal Bima Yojana, among others.

FARMERS TAKE TRAINS

Earlier, thousands of farmers from across Karnataka, who arrived in the State capital by trains, converged at Freedom Park before marching towards the Vidhana Soudha.

About 1,000 farmers each from Mandya and Mysuru District too left for Bengaluru by trains, with farmers travelling without tickets as a mark of protest against the Union Government's indifferent attitude towards resolving agrarian crisis that has been haunting the country.

TIGHT POLICE SECURITY

With farmers gathering at Freedom Park, a strong Police force of over a thousand personnel was deployed at Majestic, Freedom Park and other key locations in the heart of Bengaluru in order to prevent the irate farmers from reaching Vidhana Soudha, the seat of power.

Hinkal Flyover junction to be named after Atal Bihari Vajpayee

Inauguration either on Nov. 28 or Dec. 7

Mysuru, Nov.19 (RK&BCT)- Although the works on Hinkal Flyover is almost complete, it seems that its inauguration may be delayed further and this time the gala event will depend on the availability of VVIPs both from the State and the Centre.

While local authorities including District Minister G.T. Devegowda want Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy to open the flyover on Nov.28, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha wants Union Minister of State for Housing and Urban Affairs Hardeep Singh Puri to inaugurate it and he is available only on Dec.7.

Once inaugurated, the Hinkal Flyover junction will be named after former Prime Minister late Atal Bihari Vajpayee, said Pratap Simha. He said that already the junction has Vajpayee's name and an attractive sign board will be erected at the junction in the former PM's name.

Funds-flow for farming

Policy, programme and plan of action relating to the multitude of sectors in the country's economy ought to be addressed by successive governments at the Centre and its counterparts in the 36 States and Union Territories in tandem, particularly for the two major sectors namely, agriculture and industry, maybe in that order. Given the too-well-known feature of conflicting diverse outlooks of the major political parties on issues of economic and social policies, to expect them to function harmoniously in tandem amounts to asking for the moon as it were. The scenario of managing the country's resources has already tended to turn murky as a result of yawning discord between the advisors to the government and the administration, as illustrated by the ongoing dialogue between the Reserve Bank of India's former head and the powers that be in the government.

Deciding on the proportions of land primarily for (a) Agriculture, (b) Industry and (c) Shelter, apart from road as well as rail network is sure to engage the planning teams of both the Union Government and the administrations in State Governments 24x7 with the best of brains. The onus of electing law-makers committed to nation's progress is of the country's people themselves, unlike the present reality of electing unworthy flock, barring exceptions.

By hindsight as it were, the country has witnessed in the past a reasonably satisfactory relation between its life-supporting resources and the needs of its population. That relation has already got dented given the disproportionate ratio between urban and rural parts of the land, the latter area hosting growers of food crops and the former hosting the consuming hungry masses. To describe the relentless conversion of land needed for agriculture to land for meeting the growing needs of dwellings and roads, read greed of the urban population as encroachment, is an understatement. That conversion has already crossed limits of optimum urban-rural-land ratio. Anybody suggesting the way out of this tight plight of the country merits to be honoured as Bharat Ratna.

In the backdrop of the foregoing longish preamble, no government can afford to ignore the farming sector's priorities in the country's economy focusing on agri-business, particularly marketing of farm produce to ensure reasonable agri-income. The measure just announced by the Agriculture Ministry to fund schemes for encouraging agri-business is timely.

Music for tasty cheese

Emmental: A Emmental region cheese maker of Switzerland has been playing music to his cheese to make them taste better.

Since September, cheese maker Beat Wampfler has been blasting musical masterpieces by legends such as Led Zeppelin and A Tribe Called Quest to his wheels of Emmental cheese, hoping to prove that music can influence the development, characteristics and most importantly, the flavor of the cheese. He is convinced that humidity, temperature and nutrients are not the only things that can have an impact on the taste of cheese, and that sounds, ultrasounds and music can make an impact on flavor as well.

A jury of expert cheese tasters will assess the effect of the various musical genres on Wampfler's wheels of Emmental cheese on March 15 next year.

Boy sleeps and plays with deadly snakes

Pathada: Devesh Adivasi, a 7-year-old boy from Pathada village in Madhya Pradesh, in central India, for the past four years, has been going into the jungle near his village and coming back with all kinds of snakes, some of them poisonous, that he plays, bathes and eats with. So far, he hasn't been bitten once.

Devesh's family members says that his fascination with snakes started when he was three-years-old, after dreaming about the slithering reptiles one night. Next morning, he told his parents about it, but they didn't think much of it until they saw him running into the jungle near their village and later coming out with two snakes in hand. The reptiles slithered all over his body, but they didn't bite him. Since that day, Devesh has been going into the jungle almost every day and bringing back new friends to play with. He keeps them for a few days, bathes and sleeps with them, massages them with oil and then releases them back into the jungle.

Extend Garib Rath Express train upto Mysuru

Sir,

The train number 12735/12736 Yeswanthpur - Secunderabad Garib Rath Express operates as a Tri-Weekly Express train via Guntkal-Raichur-Wadi.

The train serves as an excellent overnight connectivity to both Bengaluru and Secunderabad. Mysuru also needs an immediate overnight connectivity to Secunderabad either through a daily or Tri-Weekly train arrangement.

At present only Bi-Weekly Mysuru-Jaipur Express connects to Kacheguda but it is of little help as it reaches at odd hours.

As Garib Rath Express runs on a Tri-Weekly basis, it is suggested to extend this train upto Mysuru with commercial stoppages enroute at Kengeri-Ramangaram-Maddur and Mandya.

The Railway authorities have already completed the doubling and electrification of the entire stretch of Chennai-Bengaluru-Mysuru rail corridor this year. Such a positive development will also serve as an ideal opportunity to the Railways to consider extending some of the other popular daily and non-daily trains beyond Bengaluru.

As Bengaluru is already connected by at least three daily trains and twelve non-daily trains to Secunderabad-Kacheguda, the suggested extension of Garib Rath Express upto Mysuru will not affect the existing connectivity. Further the train's extension will only yield optimum patronage with expected high passenger occupancy/demand bound to both Bengaluru and Secunderabad from Mysuru.

The Railway administration is requested to consider the suggestion and implement the same in the interest of passengers.

Masked miscreant steals bridal jewels from businessman's house

- Burglar decamps with gold jewellery, cash worth more than Rs.25 lakh kept for daughter's wedding
- CCTV records burglar entering house
- Special Police team formed to nab miscreant

Mysuru, Nov.19 (KS)- A masked miscreant, who entered the house of a businessman by opening the lock of the door using a duplicate key, has decamped with gold jewellery and cash worth more than Rs.25 lakh from the house in Rajivnagar on Saturday night.

The burglary took place at the house of Ilyas Baig, proprietor of NI Groups, who had kept the cash and gold jewellery for his daughter's wedding which was held yesterday at a private hotel in city. The family members had gone to a hotel to take part in the wedding rituals on Saturday when the theft took place.

Ilyas Baig, who spoke to Star of Mysore this morning said that his daughter's wedding was scheduled to take place on Sunday at a private hotel in city and he along with his family members had gone to the hotel on Saturday evening to take part in the wedding rituals.

Baig further said that he and his family members returned to the house at about 4 am on Sunday and when he saw the LCD monitor attached to the CCTV camera, he saw the message 'No Link' displayed on the screen but did not take it seriously as he thought that the children may have removed the cable of the CCTV camera and went to sleep.

Continuing, Ilyas said that when he woke up and went around the house, he saw the cable of the CCTV camera cut and on checking the CCTV footage, he saw a masked man entering the house and the last footage before the cable was cut showed the time as 7.59 pm.

When he checked the wardrobe where he had kept the jewellery and cash for his daughter's wedding, he found nearly three-fourth of the jewellery worth about Rs.25 lakh and Rs.2.5 lakh cash missing and immediately called Udayagiri Police and informed about the incident.

He further said that Udayagiri Inspector P.P. Santosh and staff rushed to his house and conducted an inspection and also summoned the Dog Squad and Fingerprint experts to the spot besides registering a case. The Police have collected the footage captured by the CCTV camera installed at the house. Ilyas said that the City Crime Branch (CCB) Police too visited his house yesterday afternoon and collected information from him.

Meanwhile, Police sources said that a Special Police team has been formed to nab the burglar.

Of late, there is a rise in the number of house burglaries in city. In majority of the cases, the house owners do not inform the jurisdictional Police when they are going out of station despite the Police informing the citizens to inform them as they could keep vigil on locked house. The carelessness on the part of house owners are leading to house burglaries in city.

The Mysuru City Police have once again informed the residents to inform their jurisdictional Police Station when they (residents) are going out of station be it for a day or more.

Three house burglars arrested

Valuables worth Rs.1 lakh recovered

The arrested are Shabaz Qureshi of Shanthinagar, Mohammed Azar of KHB Colony in Udayagiri and Syed Javeed of K.N. Pura in Kalyangiri.

The accused were caught by the CCB Police during an operation conducted on Pulakeshi Road in city.

CSI Church Pastor, five others booked for assaulting Bishop

Accused deny allegations; allege Bishop's men assaulted a senior citizen

Mysuru, Nov.19 (SBD&BCT)- Six persons including a Pastor of a Church have been booked for allegedly assaulting a Bishop.

The case has been registered at Mandi Mohalla Police Station based on the complaint by the Bishop. However, the persons who have been accused of assault have denied the allegations and have in turn accused the Bishop of falsely implicating them.

In his complaint filed at Mandi Station on Nov.17 at around 8.30 pm, Bishop of the Church of South India, Karnataka Southern Diocese, Mangaluru, Rev. Mohan Manoraj has alleged that he was entering the premises of Sawday Church at Tilak Nagar in city at about 11 am when a group of people led by Pastor Rev. Osmond N. Siri abused and assaulted him and also pulled his Bishop's Cross.

He has started that Rev. Osmond Siri had been recently transferred to Maddur Church and Rev. Victor was appointed in his place. The Bishop has stated that on that day, he, accompanied by Rev. Victor and others, tried to enter the Sawday Church through the main gate but it was found locked from inside. Rev. Osmond Siri, accompanied by Girish, Sudhakar, Samuel Sadan, Jnanashekaran and Noel Parker, had entered the Church and had locked the building from inside.

Locked gates

The Bishop stated that as the main gate was locked, he and his group tried to enter the Church from the rear entry, the group led by Rev. Osmond Siri stopped them, abused and allegedly assaulted them. He alleged that the Bishop's Cross was pulled and a murder threat was issued.

Following the complaint, the Mandi Police have registered cases under IPC sections 143 (unlawful assembly), 147 (rioting), 341 (wrongful restraint), 323 (voluntarily causing hurt), 504 (intentional insult) and 506 (criminal intimidation) 149 (unlawful assembly guilty of offence committed in common intention).

Allegations denied

Girish, Sudhakar, Samuel Sadan and Jnanashekaran, have, however, denied the allegation of assault and have accused the Bishop of creating a drama. "The Bishop and his group of bouncers have assaulted Noel Parker who is a senior citizen and we were pushed around for questioning the Bishop's highhandedness," they said.

Church renovation works

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Girish, Samuel and Jnanashekaran said that the State Government had released Rs.30 lakh for the renovation of Sawday Church under a 2.5 crore project for churches in Mysuru.

"A Church Building Committee has been formed and Bishop Rev. Mohan Manoraj has put a condition that the contractors suggested by him must be given the contract. This is unacceptable and the Building Committee has already appointed a Class 1 contractor for the purpose. The Bishop's demands are unreasonable and favours certain vested interests," they said.

"Pastor Rev. Osmond Siri and the Church Building Committee that is authorised to take a decision of construction did not agree to the Bishop's demands that violated the Committee rules and for this, he was transferred to Maddur and Rev. Victor has been appointed in his place. The Building Committee members and Church members are against the Bishop's unreasonable demands and the Church has passed a resolution that Rev. Osmond Siri must be retained in Mysuru for one year," they claimed.

Locks replaced

"Even we have approached the Police with complaints against the Bishop but our complaints have not been considered. The Bishop is exerting pressure on the Police and cases have been registered under duress, they claimed. They added that the Bishop moves around with a set of bouncers. They alleged that the Bishop came to city on Tuesday (Nov.13) and without informing the Church members and locked the Church. Following this, the members staged a protest. "The Bishop ordered the existing locks to be broken and replaced with the locks brought by him. Now they are creating a drama in front of the Police. We demand an impartial investigation into the case," they said.

The Power of Green

Tourmaline has the ability to purify the human energy, protect from negative influences and allows for a fast and efficient energy purification. It also aids in releasing stress and reduce levels of uneasiness and anxiety.

The colour green in Feng Shui is said to be the colour of growth and healing. Adapting this colour in the sectors which represent wood element are considered favourable. Using them in East and South East is preferred and at times in South which signifies fire element is also acceptable. From fresh spring colour of the newly opened leaves to the strong green of a mighty oak tree — there are literally hundreds of greens to choose from in your Feng Shui applications.

Each compass direction in Feng Shui has a special significance and meaning. Hence, using appropriate colours and elements can strengthen specific compass directions and enhance the benefits for the occupants.

The colour Green relates to wood and as it's a bright, vibrant colour, green can "fire" up your recognition and growth. Not just placing green plants in the home but even spending a little time amongst trees and plants can rejuvenate the 'Chi' energy of the individual and empower recognition luck.

The organs which relate to wood element are stomach, spleen and liver. Much of the internal energy is from the functioning of the liver hence colours of green in the personal attire helps to boost the energy levels. Wearing green will help give you more energy and promote healing if you don't feel well.

Placing a figurine of Green Dragon in the living room in the sector close to 110 to 125 deg helps or even adding green coloured lights as décor in this sector would be sufficient. If you have an East facing front door, the door can be enhanced through Feng Shui energy by painting the door in any shade of either green or brown.

To enhance health luck, green crystals aid healing and progress in health. There are many green stones ranging from jade to emerald, however, green tourmaline takes a special place in healing.

Suspending a Green Crystal Ball Tassel in the living room, dining room or even in the car can harmonise the flow of Chi, purify the surroundings, invigorate the space to improve the luck and health of family members as beneficial 'Chi' flows smoothly in the home.

Tourmaline has the ability to purify the human energy, protect from negative influences and allows for a fast and efficient energy purification. It also aids in releasing stress and reduce levels of uneasiness and anxiety. The power of tourmaline to heal and the power of green colour can align the internal energy, bringing in new love, vigour and joy to live life more relaxed.

Green Crystals and Tourmaline especially can be beneficial in many ways: • Clear sadness; • Create good health; • Exude joy and happiness; • Attract abundance and wealth; • Strengthen the nervous system; • Create compassion and kindness to others; • Attract success and recognition luck.

Widening of NH 275 between Kushalnagar and Sampaje

Public opinion builds against Project

Massive rally in Madikeri on Dec. 8

Mysuru/Madikeri, Nov. 19- A massive public opinion is building in Kodagu district against the State Government's proposal to widen National Highway (NH) 275 between Kushalnagar, Madikeri and Sampaje. At a public hearing held in Kushalnagar recently, the project was opposed as it will destroy the green environs in a land that extends up to over 60 kms.

A mega rally is being planned at Madikeri on Dec. 8 against this project and several stakeholders and residents of Kodagu are participating in the protest. Many organisations including United Kodava Organisation, Cauvery Sene and Coorg Wildlife Society are opposing the project and have already conveyed to the government that the Highway expansion was not needed as the existing road is wide enough to support future traffic growth.

At the public hearing in Kushalnagar, Manju Chinnappa, Convenor of United Kodava Organisation, Ravi Chengappa, Convenor of Cauvery Sene, Kallichanda Robin, hotelier Mohan, Ganesh Aiyanna and Chairman of Sree Cauvery Educational Institutions, Kuvempunagar Prof. K.C. Belliappa voiced their opinion against the unnecessary project and asked the government to reconsider the decision.

President of Coorg Wildlife Society Col. (Retd.) C.P. Muthanna, who is also the Co-ordinator of Save Kodagu and Cauvery Campaign, has written a letter to Kodagu Deputy Commissioner P.I Sreevidya in this regard highlighting the ill-effects of widening the National Highway 275.

In the letter, Col. Muthanna has stated that as per norms, widening of a particular road is necessitated only when the traffic density of that particular road increases. But in the case of NH 275 from Kushalnagar to Sampaje, the vehicle density is high only during weekends and holidays and this is due to the heavy influx of tourists.

Widening the road will damage thousands of commercial and residential properties in Kushalnagar, Suntikoppa and Madikeri. Even if the Highway is made to bypass some of the cities and towns, there will be a massive loss of green cover in this region of Kodagu that forms the catchment of River Cauvery.

Apart from increasing man-elephant conflict due to the depletion of green cover, the project will result in rapid and uncontrolled urbanisation and will ultimately result in the areas going dry without rainfall. This will lead to drying up of already weakened River Cauvery, he stated.

The letter, a copy that has been sent to State Chief Secretary T.M. Vijaya Bhaskar stated that as of now, the road from Mysuru to Kushalnagar is two-lane with paved shoulders. This paved shoulder can be extended to the entire Highway to include the Kushalnagar-Madikeri-Sampaje stretch of NH 275. This will provide sufficient width for free flow of traffic. Certain portions of the road could be widened further in order to provide safety at sharp turnings. This will prevent unnecessary and destructive extension of the Highway, he said.

Col. Muthanna further stated that there are a number of link roads on this route that are not fully utilised due to poor maintenance. One example is Kadagadalu-Virajpet Road. If these link roads are improved and maintained well, local vehicles can use them and this will considerably reduce vehicle congestion on the National Highway.

Kodagu District Pensioners Association opposes Project

Mysuru, Nov. 19- The Kodagu District Pensioners Association has also opposed to the proposed widening of National Highway 275 from Kushalnagar to Madikeri and Sampaje. In a letter to Union Minister of Road Transport and Highways, Shipping and Water Resources Nitin Gadkari and the Prime Minister's Office, President of the Association K.C. Biddappa has stated that the project will destroy thousands of trees in the green belt and thick vegetation between Kushalnagar and Sampaje.

Kodagu is already facing unbridled commercial activity, rampant land conversion and massive deforestation. Torrential rains during August 2018 have resulted in massive landslides destroying thousands of acres of coffee plantations bringing in untold misery for the people of the district and livestock.

Widening of NH 275 will make the presently green terrain barren and this will lead to more landslides and will threaten the very existence of River Cauvery as thousands of trees will be felled in the river catchment area. The current traffic density of 2,500 to 3,000 vehicles per day does not warrant four-lane conversion of the existing two-lane Highway, he stated.

Justifying his arguments, Biddappa compares NH 275 with Munnar on NH 49 wherein nearly 30 to 40 kms of the Highway is only a narrow single lane road. Also, NH 181 between Gudalur and Ooty is a single lane. This is because the National Highway authorities have sensibly planned the ghat section and the width of the Highway so that there is a seamless busy traffic plying on these roads without any bottlenecks, he explained.

The two-lane Highway (NH 275) is far superior to NH 181 and NH 49 in terms of width. Therefore, there is absolutely no justification for four-lane conversion the NH 275 and that too in an ecologically fragile area, he has stated. This road can be widened by a metre on either side to ensure free flow of traffic, he stated.

The Hinkal Flyover, the first flyover in the city, is waiting for inauguration as all the major works have been completed. It was scheduled to be inaugurated before Dasara but was postponed as some of the minor works had to be completed. Again, the announcement of by-polls schedule for the three Lok Sabha and two Assembly constituencies in the State came in the way of inauguration.

The 4-lane Flyover is 510 meters long and 17.20 meters wide, with 1.20 meter central median. The project has been executed under Jawaharlal Nehru National Urban Renewal Mission (JnNURM) scheme, with the Centre funding 60 percent, the State Government and MUDA 20% each.

As the project's major funding is from the Centre, Pratap Simha, who inspected the Flyover this morning, wants Union Minister Hardeep Singh Puri to inaugurate, sources said. A tentative date of Nov. 28 was fixed by Minister G.T. Devegowda for CM Kumaraswamy to inaugurate. However, the Minister has now been informed about MP's views and the inauguration date has been fixed for Dec. 7.

The date will be finalised in consultation with the CM and the announcement is expected to be made at the MUDA Board meeting on Nov. 24. Also, a MUDA Adalat has been organised on Nov. 29 where State Urban Development Minister U.T. Khader will hear public grievances. ## PM Modi ridicules Congress

Prime Minister Narendra Modi lashed out at the Congress for giving false and impractical assurances to farming community. Addressing a rally at Mahasamund in poll-bound Chhattisgarh yesterday, Modi ridiculed Congress' promise of farm loan waiver within 10 days if the party was voted to power in Chhattisgarh.

Pointing out that the Coalition Government in Karnataka, with the Congress as major partner, is yet to implement farm loan waiver even after 6 months in power, the PM said the Congress cannot mislead the country by making false claims. Stating that the Congress ruled the country for most part since independence, Modi questioned the Congress on what it had done for the farming community after being in power for decades.

Golf Talk...

By U.B. Acharya

Golf & the Ryder Cup

To the golf playing addicts as well as to the non-golf playing enthusiasts, September end was a visual treat on live TV. In Paris, 24 of the world's best golfers from Europe and USA fought very hard for three days and finally Europe came as deserving winners of the Ryder Cup.

Before proceeding further on the details of the Ryder Cup, let me explain some of the fundamentals of the game of Golf. Golf is defined as "a club and a ball" sport where a stationary ball is hit with a club. The ball is hit successively from a starting point called the "Tee" until the ball finally ends up in a "Cup" of 4.25" in diameter. The space from the tee to the cup is defined as a "Hole." The aim of the game is to hit the ball from the tee to its own cup with minimum number of strokes.

Unlike most ball games, golf does not have a standardised playing area (defined as the "Course") but utilises the terrain of the area to prepare a golf course. A full course consists of 18* holes each with a teeing ground, fairway, rough and other hazards and finally the "Putting Green" with a cup and a flagstick. While many holes are designed with direct line-of-sight from the tee to the flagstick, some holes might bend to the left or to the right and these holes are called "dog-leg" holes. ( Did the 15th century Scottish people who invented this game know that the Hindu religion's most sacred document "Bhagavad Gita" also has 18 chapters?)*

A hole is classified by its "Par" meaning the number of strokes a skilled golfer should require to complete the play of the hole. Short holes (150 to 250 yards) would have a Par of three, medium length holes (350 to 475 yards), a Par of four and the long ones (500 to 600) Yards, a Par of five. Thus the average Par for the course is 72. A hole completed in one less stroke than the Par score is called a "Birdie" and two under is an "Eagle." Similarly, over the Par score are "Bogie" and "Double Bogie."

The Rules of Golf are quite complicated and are administered jointly by Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, United States Golf Association and International Golf Federation. For a beginner, it takes some time and effort to fully understand and follow the rules. We shall not go into the details of the rules.

In amateur or club level golf, it is not easy to play par golf. So to make the game interesting, a "Handicapping" system is introduced. A beginner is given a handicap of 18 and as he improves his game, his handicap is cut. Thus in an amateur competition, all players are brought to a level playing condition.

In professional golf, individual tournaments are being held throughout the year all over the world. Such tournaments are played for four rounds and the player with lowest total score of four rounds would be the winner. The four major tournaments in a year are the British Open, the US Open, the Masters and the PGA Championship. While Jack Nicklaus has won 18 majors, Tiger Woods has 14 and is still in the running.

Among the team events, the Ryder Cup is the most prestigious event played once in two years between USA and Europe. This cup (shown alongside) is named after the English businessman Samuel Ryder who donated the trophy. Initially, when the competition was established in 1927, it was between USA and Great Britain but since USA won practically every time, from 1979 onwards, it has been a contest between USA and Europe.

The competition is spread over three days and consists of 28 matches, each earning one point to the winning side. If the match is equal at the end of 18 holes, both the team share half a point each. On the first two days, 16 doubles matches are played between the two teams and on the final days 12 singles matches are played. The team winning at least 14 $^{1}/_{2}$ points is the winner of the trophy.

In 2016, Europe was the winner. This year, USA with John Speith, Dustin Johnson and resurging Tiger Woods was hoping to take back the cup "across the pond", but Europe with a couple of rookies like Tommy Fleetwood and Francesco Molinari helped Europe retain the trophy by a comfortable margin of 17 $^{1}/_{2}$ to 10 $^{1}/_{2}$ points. Yet, the record books show that USA has won 25 times as against Great Britain/ Europe 16.

Nandini Milk booth still not evicted from Valmiki Road

Problems plague Maharani's College Students

Mysuru, Nov.19 (SBD&NNN)- The new Maharani's Commerce and Management College for Women on Valmiki Road in Paduvarahalli is definitely an eye-catching building which looks like it is provided with all modern amenities. Sadly, however, many problems continue to plague the girls studying here.

Earlier, nearly 9,000 girls had to study in the congested Maharani's Arts and Commerce College building on JLB Road with hardly any toilets and insufficient classrooms. However, with the construction of the new building on Valmiki Road, the students of Commerce and Management felt that their problems had come to an end.

Major issues: The florists, who were earlier located on the same side of the footpath as the College, have now been vacated and given a place diagonally opposite to the College. However, a Nandini Milk booth is still there.

Here, more than milk and its products, tea, coffee and cigarettes are being sold. Since the shop is located right near the gate, the girl students feel uncomfortable to walk on the road as a few of the mischief makers smoking cigarettes blow smoke rings and tease the girls.

Despite the ban on sale of tobacco products near schools and colleges, it looks like it has not been implemented here and the impunity with which the rule is ignored is quite disgusting, said a girl student speaking to Star of Mysore on condition of anonymity.

The footpath in front of the College has still not been repaired. After laying the concrete, the work has still not been completed. The open storm water drain is already filled with garbage.

Forced to walk: One of the major problems the girls are facing is lack of transport and nothing has been done about it till now. The students are forced to walk from Metropole Circle or Akashavani Circle to reach the college and again walk to catch buses to their respective destinations, even now.

They all are keeping quiet as they do not have a voice to express their problems. This is because they fear the backlash of the authorities concerned and the students are silently suffering. At least now, the College authorities and the people's representatives should come to the aid of the girl students and solve their problems, said a few parents to SOM.

Learn lessons from seeing if not listening

Some members of the public, who have identified the problems faced by the Maharani's College for Commerce and Management, feel that the authorities concerned here must at least learn from what other educational institutions have done to improve the quality of life for the students by seeing if not listening, especially girls, in their colleges.

All they have to do is see Sri Dharmasthala Manjunatheswara (SDM) College for Women. This College is a classic example of how much care Dharmasthala Dharmadikari Dr. Veerendra Heggade takes with regard to the girls studying in the college. The girls who are concerned about their personal care and beauty also expect a degree of facilities in the colleges they study.

Apart from the complaints they might have regarding the problems related to teachers not taking classes, food in the hostel is not good, there are a few problems which are very private and cannot be easily shared. It is in this background that the Administration and the local elected representatives must identify the problems and solve them, said the parents of the students.

Inland Container Yard by Concor likely to come up soon at Kadakola between Mysuru and Nanjangud

Mysuru, Nov.19 (UNI)- Works on the proposed greenfield project for an Inland Container Yard by Container Corporation of India Ltd. (Concor) at Kadakola, between Mysuru and Nanjangud, is expected to take off soon with tender process already being finalised.

"Tenders were already finalised and the work was awarded to a private firm. The time frame for its completion is 24 months," said Anup Dayanand Sadhu, Group General Manager of Concor.

The project is expected to cost Rs.92 crore (including land cost) and will include warehouse facility, bonded warehouse — a secured facility managed by the customs that will facilitate importers to store the cargo till payment of Customs Duty.

"This will be the third Container Yard in Karnataka by Concor after Whitefield and Mangaluru, but the latter does not have a Warehouse but has only rail sidings, whereas the one at Kadakola will have a full-fledged facility," Dayanand said.

Once completed, it will provide a single-window facility for export units to complete all Customs formalities. Stakeholders say it will give a boost to export-import traffic and help local manufacturers save on transportation cost by 25 percent or more, while reducing the cost of finished products. It is reckoned that not less than two rakes of container traffic is generated a week in Mysuru and surrounding industrial areas, which are transported by road to the Concor terminal at Whitefield, from where they are moved to the port of departure. But once the container facility at Kadakola is ready, it will provide direct connectivity from Yard to port for export and import.

In the absence of a container facility, manufacturers at present use roadways to transport merchandise and finished products. The Container Yard has been a long-pending demand. While work on the facilities for Concor's Inland Container Yard will commence in due course, stakeholders are worried about the delay in handing over a plot critical to the completion of the project.

Though the bulk of the 55 acres of land has been handed over by the Karnataka Industrial Areas Development Board (KIADB) to Concor, a plot of 6.5 acres has not been transferred.

"The 6.5 acres is the spot from where the railway line has to take off to join the main line, and it is critical to the completion of the project," admitted Sadhu.

However, the time frame for the completion of the Concor warehouse and other facilities is 24 months, by which time the authorities can be expected to transfer the land, he added.

WORD OF THE DAY

Derring-do

Pronunciation: Dair-ing-DOO

Meaning: Daring action; daring.
Origin: Derring-do is a quirky hold-over from Middle English that came to occupy its present place in the language by a series of mistakes and misunderstandings. In Middle English, dorring don meant simply "daring to do." For example, Geoffrey Chaucer used dorring don around 1374 when he described a knight "daring to do" brave deeds. The phrase was misprinted as derring do in a 16th-century edition of a 15th-century work by poet John Lydgate and Edmund Spenser took it up from there, assuming it was meant as a substantive or noun phrase. (A glossary to Spenser's work defined it as "manhood and chevalrie.") Sir Walter Scott and others in the 19th century got the phrase from Spenser and brought it into modern use.
Example: The soldier received a medal of valor for his derring-do on the battlefield.

THE ODD WORD

Gallus

Bold, cheeky, or flashy.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

As daft as a brush

Meaning: Very foolish.

Origin: On the face of it, brushes wouldn't seem to be any more daft than anything else. As the source of the expression isn't obvious, various suggestions have been put forward as to what form of brush is being referred to; for instance: The phrase originated as 'as soft as a brush' and the brush is the tail of a fox. This is plausible in that 'soft' is a northern English term for stupid, and foxes tails are in fact quite soft to the touch. In looking for early examples of 'daft as a brush' in print we find that it first starts appearing in the 1950s. An example is in William Morgan Williams' The Sociology of an English Village: Gosforth, 1956. The wives of two members of a kin-group locally thought to be eccentric and extremely unsociable were pointed out by several people as 'gay queer' and 'daft as a brush'.
Example: My dear old mother went as daft as a brush in her final years.
